KILL THREE, HURT 14

Truck Fatally Injures Man
Waiting for Trolley at Eleventh and Christian Streets

CHILD HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Week-end automobile and trolley accidents resulted in two deaths and a dozen or more injured, one probably fatally.

A smash-up on the Buena Vista pike, three miles south of May's Landing, caused the death of Stanley Suski, 2873 Aramingo avenue. He died in the Atlantic City Hospital. In the car with him was Stephen Bentley, 2717 Webb street. Bentley received a fractured skull. His condition is critical.

Mrs. Celia Levy, sixty-eight years old, 632 Master street, died in the Children's Homeopathic Hospital from injuries she received Saturday night when struck by a trolley car near her home.

While waiting to board a trolley car at Eleventh and Christian streets last night, Giuseppe Riso, fifty years old, of Coshohocken, was run over and killed by a truck. Riso had been visiting friends in South Philadelphia during the day and was on his way home.

The driver of the truck, Frank Camp, thirty-five years old, 1118 Christian street, rushed his victim to the Howard Hospital, where death was said to have been almost instantaneous. Camp was held under arrest and will have a hearing before Magistrate Carson at Central Station today.

Child Escapes in Crash

A baby riding with her parents on a motorcycle was unhurt, but the parents were badly injured when the machine was struck by an automobile on Girard avenue. The mother, Mrs. William Sheats, 2704 North Warrick street, is in the West Philadelphia Homoeopathic Hospital with a fractured skull, while her husband has a dislocated shoulder and other injuries.

Mrs. Anna Graubin, seventy years, of Nineteenth and Rowan streets, was injured when struck by an auto at Germantown avenue near Junia street last night. Otto Mueller, 5230 Schuyler street, driver of the machine, took the woman to St. Luke's Hospital, where it was found her condition was serious. The driver surrendered to the police.

Leonard Kinsley, Sixtieth street near Cedar avenue; Miss Margaret McMeamin, eighteen years old, and Miss Catherine McMeamin, twenty-one, 637 South Fifty-fourth street, sustained injuries when the automobile in which they were riding overturned into a ditch along the Montgomery pike early yesterday.

The injured were taken in a passing automobile to the West Philadelphia Homoeopathic Hospital, where it was found that Thomas Apostolice, of 6038 Kingessing avenue, was arrested after his automobile had crashed into another machine while he was encircling "L" uprights at Sixty-second and Market streets. His car was damaged.

According to the police, Apostolice was winding his way in and out among the elevated uprights when he collided with another motorcar.

Oscar Snowden, fifty-four years old, 3334 Ludlow street, had his hand badly injured when he was struck by an automobile at Broad and Stiles streets last night. He was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Turning the corner of Third and Linden streets, Camden, yesterday, a motorcycle, driven by John Wohlfarth, twenty-six years old, of 929 North Front street, collided with an automobile driven by George Atkins, twenty-five years old, of 547 Newton avenue. The motorcyclist was injured about the ear and head and was taken to Cooper Hospital. The accident was reported to the police by the automobilist.

An automobile containing six people turned over on Silver Lake avenue near Snyder avenue, Westville, N. J. The occupants escaped with slight cuts and bruises.

While Irving Davis, thirty-eight years old, of 6400 Upland street, was bending over his motorcycle on the White Horse pike, near Somerville, N. J., last night, he was run down by a motorist, who put on speed and escaped. The man's left ankle was fractured. He was taken to the Cooper Hospital, Camden.

NEW RECTOR FOR ST. MARK'S

Rev. F. L. Vardon Coming Here From Portland, Me.

The Very Rev. Frank L. Vardon, dean of St. Luke's Episcopal Cathedral Church, Portland, Me., has been selected as rector of St. Mark's Church here. He will succeed the Rev. Elliott White, who resigned the local pastorate to become dean of the Episcopal Cathedral at Fond du Lac, Wis.

The Rev. Mr. Vardon is forty-seven years old, and was ordained to the ministry in 1900. He graduated from Cambridge Theological Seminary. He is standing chairman of the diocese of Maine and is one of the examining chaplains.

Breaking all records—

A short time ago a star athlete from Cornell went over to Franklin Field and broke the world's record for the 440 hurdle race. He won because of superior speed and endurance.

In the daily race of business, Library Bureau card systems are breaking all records for speed and distance—handling office detail in less time and with less effort than it has ever been handled before.

Library Bureau offers you card systems and equipment for all purposes—for every business. It offers you the know-how of 44 years experience—the sales intelligence which takes so much wood or steel, and so many cards and guides, and transmutes them into a practical working system.

A sample of this know-how is found in the L. B. system for handling purchase records.

Annual Summer Reduction Sale
Oriental Rugs
Begins Today, Monday, July 19th

We have increased our business two and one-half times over last year, which was one of the best years we have ever had. The reasons are obvious: We had the rugs and our prices were fair. We doubt if any other house in our line can show such a result. In spite of the foregoing facts, and because we do not wish to disappoint our customers, whom we have taught to expect it each year, we begin today

The Greatest Annual

Trim White Satine Petticoats, Special

Just the right weight and thickness for summer, easily laundered and dainty withal. Special at $1.85—A model with tucked sectional flounce and elastic waist-band. EXTRA-SIZE PETTICOATS Special at $2.25—Made with tucked flounce, edged with plaiting.

Rugs One-fourth Under Price

The Department of Lower-Priced Floor Coverings has secured from one of America's foremost manufacturers a collection of SEAMLESS Rugs which—because of slight, imperceptible imperfections—are to be sold at one-fourth less than the retail value of perfect grades. The irregularities affect neither wear nor appearance. In fact, they are so slight that we cannot detect them. Nevertheless, they are the means of home furnishers deriving a saving of fully ONE-FOURTH. Typical values—

- Seamless Axminster Rugs, 9x12 feet—$56 and $67.50
 - Tapestry Brussels Rugs, 9x12 feet—$29.75 and $33.00
 - Extra-heavy Velvet Rugs, size 9x12 feet—$49.75
- And all other room sizes—6x9, 7.6x9, 8.3x10.6 and others—as well as of small, useful sizes, such as 27x54 and 36x70 inches—at proportional savings.
